

Let TENS and Vanco help you transform stewardship.

TENS knows there's more to stewardship than making online giving as easy as passing the plate. It's even more important to step back and focus on what inspires church members to share their gifts, and on making life easy for the people entrusted with those resources.

That's why TENS encourages you to join the 38,000+ churches that trust Vanco to provide them with...

Inspiration

- Helping members realize how their donations make a difference
- A way to ignite generosity so members want to share their gifts
- A way to expand the church's reach so that more people will show up to drive toward that vision

Simplicity

- An easy way for members to give online
- An easy way to get them started
- A fast, friction-free way to ensure donations are routed to each of their intended causes
- An online giving provider who will pick up the phone whenever they need help
